

Victoria and Albert Museum

Referencia

The Victoria and Albert Museum in Kensington, London, is the world's largest museum and decorative arts and design, housing a permanent collection of over 4.5 million objects. This dramatic entrance is created by installing two 4 wing revolving glass doors to maximise and create unusual lighting effects. An additional curved glass wall on either side of the entrance further enhance the design.

Victoria and Albert Museum

Referencia

